Breakfast Seminar Series

Presented by: Kara Nickel

If we had a nickel for every question we receive about the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) ... Wait! We do have a nickel ... Kara Nickel. In this advanced session, Kara will address complex FMLA situations which can rapidly escalate into mind-bending problems, including how to manage suspected intermittent leave abuse, when and why retroactive designation may be the answer and navigating the tangled web of the FMLA, ADA and other employment laws. Kara will also discuss strategies for potential problem areas.

Kara will include time for your questions. So, if you have a burning FMLA question, please send it to Kara in advance of the seminar at knickel@stearnsweaver.com.

About the Speaker

Kara S. Nickel is a Shareholder in the Labor and Employment Department. Ms. Nickel's practice is focused on litigation of employment disputes in federal and state court and before administrative agencies in connection with claims for discrimination, harassment, retaliation, failure to accommodate, leaves of absence, wage and hour, whistleblower retaliation, and breach of contract. She also counsels employers on day-to-day employment-related issues. Ms. Nickel received her J.D., summa cum laude, from the University of Miami School of Law and her B.A., cum laude, from the University of Miami.

About the Series

Stearns Weaver Miller's Breakfast Seminar Series will be held in our Miami and Fort Lauderdale Offices on a frequent basis. The series, designed for Human Resources Professionals, General Counsel and Senior Executives, will provide an in-depth look at specific laws and policies.
