Breakfast Seminar Series

Presented by: W. Russell Hamilton, III and Jennifer L. Saltz

With changes in the unemployment compensation law having taken effect last year, employers are still struggling to find the best way to take advantage of the employer friendly changes. We will guide you through the newly revised law and highlight the best strategies to improve your chances of successfully defending a claim for unemployment compensation benefits.

About the Speakers

Russell Hamilton and Jennifer Saltz are members of Stearns Weaver Miller's top-ranked Labor and Employment Department, practicing out of the Firm's Miami and Fort Lauderdale offices. Mr. Hamilton's practice focuses on labor, employment and employee benefits matters, representing exclusively employers, employer associations, and employee benefit plans and fiduciaries. He has been ranked #1 in Labor and Employment since 2003 by Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyer for Business. Ms. Saltz represents state and national employers at the trial and appellate levels in labor and employment litigation, including claims for discrimination, harassment, retaliation, failure to accommodate, family and medical leave, whistleblower, workers compensation retaliation, and wage and hour.

About the Series

Stearns Weaver Miller's Labor & Employment Law Breakfast Seminar Series will be held in Port St. Lucie on a quarterly basis. The series, designed for Human Resources Professionals, General Counsel and Senior Executives, will provide a nuts and bolts overview of employment law for businesses.
