OVERVIEW

Abby Corbett is a Shareholder in the Litigation Department. Her national legal practice encompasses a wide variety of complex commercial litigation matters, including defending and prosecuting class actions in both federal and state court. Abby also regularly advises local governments, as well as other public and private entities, on constitutional law and other government affairs issues, including the legal considerations and policy options associated with efforts to adapt to the effects of climate change.

In her commercial litigation practice, Abby has extensive experience in antitrust class actions, complex contract disputes, deceptive and unfair trade practice cases, defamation and libel lawsuits, RICO actions, and False Claims Act cases. She has also served as primary defense counsel in class actions involving the Electronic Funds Transfer Act and the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act. And she has experience successfully litigating appeals in federal and state appellate courts.

Before joining the Firm, Abby served as a law clerk for the Honorable Paul C. Huck of the United States District Court, Southern District of Florida. Prior to her clerkship, she was an associate in the Washington, D.C. office of an international law firm.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

Serves as the City of Coral Gables' Special Counsel on First Amendment matters.

Obtained a complete dismissal with prejudice on all counts, which was affirmed on appeal, for a large national bank in a class action lawsuit alleging tens of millions of dollars in allegedly improperly charged overdraft fees.

As lead counsel in a set of related federal class action lawsuits, obtained a favorable settlement for the largest commercial bank based in Florida.

Obtained a $151,250,000 recovery on behalf of a class of indirect purchasers in antitrust litigation against the country's leading manufacturers of polyurethane foam involving a cross-border price fixing and market allocation conspiracy. The amount represents the fourth largest antitrust recovery ever on behalf of an indirect purchaser class.

Obtained multimillion dollar recovery for a class of 33 Florida counties in an action to recover unpaid Tourist Development Taxes from various online travel companies (Expedia, Priceline, Travelocity, Orbitz, etc).

Obtained favorable settlement, and complete summary judgment on all of Defendant's counterclaims, on behalf of multinational petroleum coke and energy trading company in litigation against two of the company's former executives and their co-conspirators arising out of international embezzlement and product diversion scheme.

Drafted successful memoranda of law leading to permanent injunction in trade dress action on behalf of internationally renowned manufacturer of high-end men's shirts against infringing competitor.

Assisted with negotiating and drafting of the NFL-NBC Sunday Night Football contract.

Obtained dismissal with prejudice of First Amendment-barred contract case against historic Washington, DC church.
