

Felicia Kitzmiller Selected President-Elect of Tallahassee Women Lawyers

Tallahassee, FL – July 1, 2024 – Stearns Weaver Miller announced that Felicia Kitzmiller was selected President-Elect of Tallahassee Women Lawyers (“TWL”). TWL is a voluntary bar association dedicated to promoting the status of women in the legal community and the community at large. The group aims to create, improve, and maintain supportive networks between members through mutual cooperation, respect, and good friendship. Felicia has been active in the organization for more than five years, and has previously served as Secretary, Judicial Reception Director, Public Relations Director, and Meetings Coordinator.

In addition to TWL, Felicia is an active member of The Florida Bar Environmental & Land Use Law Section (“ELULS”). She has served on the Executive Council and as Co-Editor of The Reporter, the Section’s newsletter. In 2023, Felicia earned the Section’s Stephens/Register Award, given to a non-officer member of the Executive Council who has provided consistent leadership and invaluable contribution to the Section. She is also member of the Tallahassee Bar Association.

Felicia is a Land Development, Zoning & Environmental attorney. She focuses her practice on all aspects of land development, partnering with clients to resolve multi-faceted issues through the administrative process, litigation, or legislation. She works on matters involving wetland and imperiled species permitting and compliance, along with real property issues including title analysis, easements, sovereign submerged lands authorizations and more. Felicia has particular experience addressing issues associated with mining and mineral extraction. Felicia has been recognized as a Rising Star in Florida Super Lawyers since 2022 and on the Ones to Watch list for The Best Lawyers in America since 2023.
