OVERVIEW

Hannah Murphy is a litigator who focuses her practice on privacy law, consumer protection, and elections. She has earned the ANSI-accredited Certified Information Privacy Professional/United States (CIPP/US) credential through the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP).

Areas of Concentration

Constitutional Law (Due Process, Equal Protection, First Amendment, etc.)

Consumer Protection (Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act, Florida Credit Collection Practices Act, Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, etc.)

Election Law (Candidates, Political Committees, Communications, Contributions, Election Contests, Recount Monitoring, and Related Litigation)

Estate, Probate, and Trust Litigation (Undue Influence Claims, Fiduciary Duty Claims, Construction of Trusts and Wills for multimillion dollar trusts)

Litigation & Dispute Resolution (Florida and Federal)

Privacy Law (HIPAA, CANSPAM, GDPR, TCPA, Florida's Privacy Protection Act, etc.)

Prior to joining the Firm, Hannah clerked for the Honorable Mark Walker in the Northern District of Florida, where she worked on, among other things, multi-district litigation and high-profile election and First Amendment cases.

Prior to law school, Hannah worked in political campaigns. She served as Data Director to a successful United States Senate campaign as well as a state party. She also held roles at various national political organizations working on state and federal election compliance, database administration, and communication strategy.
