OVERVIEW

"She is fantastic. She is level-headed and doesn't get caught up in the drama but at same time is very compassionate with clients and knows how to empower them...Lindsay is a young, up-and-coming superstar in the legal community."

– Chambers High Net Worth 2024

Lindsay A. Gunia is a Shareholder in the Marital & Family Law Department. She specializes in handling complex cases for high-net-worth individuals and business owners. Her experience includes the preparation of intricate prenuptial and postnuptial agreements, paternity issues, and dissolutions of marriage dealing with equitable distribution, business valuations, alimony, child support, and parental responsibility and timesharing.

Throughout her career, Lindsay has served on various committees and has held numerous positions within the state and local bar associations. She has participated as a speaker and has authored multiple articles as well as continuing legal education and webinar materials on a variety of family law matters.

Prior to joining the Firm, Lindsay was a partner at a boutique Miami family law firm, and has practiced marital and family law exclusively for over 10 years. She also previously served as a judicial intern to the Honorable Judith L. Kreeger, Eleventh Judicial Circuit Court of Florida. Lindsay began her professional career in the financial services industry obtaining her series 7 and 63 licenses.
