OVERVIEW

"Bob goes above and beyond the call of duty...Very strong knowledge of the law... takes the time to really know the client and understand our business... always available, patient, knowledgeable and dedicated to his client... Extremely effective at coming up with arguments and counterarguments... Well prepared, knowledgeable and a very good negotiator... one of the top traditional labor lawyers in the state."

- Chambers USA 2017-2024

Robert "Bob" S. Turk is a Shareholder in the Firm and the Chair of the Labor & Employment Department. He also serves as a member of the Firm's Board of Directors. He practices in the areas of employment litigation, wage and hour representation, supervisory training, employment audits, equal employment opportunity claims, affirmative action, union avoidance, wrongful discharge, employment and union contracts, trade secrets contracts, non-competition agreements, employment policies, drug-free workplace policies and representation of unionized employers in collective bargaining.

Bob is a past Chair of the Labor & Employment Law Section of The Florida Bar and a past President of the Academy of Florida Management Attorneys. He is actively involved with the South Florida Hospitality Human Resources Association. He also lectures regularly to various legal and business groups.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

Partners with clients on innovative changes to the workplace and restructuring of workforce.

Defends employers in federal and state court on claims including: race, sex, national origin, disability, religion, pregnancy, and other protected categories.

Defends employers in federal and state courts on wage and hour claims (individual and "class action").

Defends employers in state and federal courts on breach of contract claims, state discrimination claims, whistleblower and workers' compensation retaliation.

Defends employers before federal, state and local administrative enforcement agencies on a full range of employment-related claims.

Drafts handbook and workplace policies, counsels employers regarding policy implementation.

Regularly trains supervisors and employees on labor and employment laws and harassment-free workplace issues.

Advises employers on unions corporate campaigns and on obligations under the National Labor Relations Act, and represents employers before the National Labor Relations Board.

Negotiates collective bargaining agreements on behalf of employers in the hospitality, healthcare and services industries.

Song-writer: two "employment-related" song parodies (neither of which has made the pop charts).
